

MISCELLANY

BY MATTHEW ARNOLD.
 I too, have suffered: yet I know
 She is not cold, though she seems so,
 She is not cold, she is not light,
 But our ignoble souls lack might.
 She smiles, and smiles, and will not sigh,
 While we for hopeless passion die;
 Yet she could love, those eyes declare,
 Were but men nobler than they are.
 Eagerly once her gracious ken
 Was turned upon the sons of men;
 But light the serious visage grew—
 She look'd, and smiled, and saw them thro'.
 Our petty souls, our strutting wits,
 Our labor'd puny passion-fits—
 Ah! may she scorn them still, till we Scorn them as bitterly as she.
 Yet, oh! that fate would let her see
 One of some worthier race than we;
 One for whose sake she once might prove
 How deeply she who scorns can love.
 His eyes be like the stars light—
 His voice like sounds of summer nights—
 In all his lovely mien let pierce
 The magic of the universe.
 And she to him will reach her hand,
 And gazing in his eyes will stand,
 And know her friend, and weep for glee,
 And cry, "Long, long I've look'd for thee!"
 Then will she weep—with smiles, till then,
 Coldly she mocks the sons of men;
 Till then her lovely eyes maintain
 Their gay, unwavering, deep disdain.

The Detroit Free Press says the European capitalists who left Chicago on Tuesday morning, were taken over the intervening two hundred and forty miles to Toledo in less than seven hours, including forty minutes for lunch at Elkhart, and all of the several stops along the way. Deducting stops, the entire distance was run at the rate of forty-seven miles an hour, while, as if to show what an American locomotive could do over a superb road-bed, the last thirty-three miles were completed in thirty-two minutes.

"There's a difference in time, you know, between this country and Europe," said a gentleman in New York, to a newly-arrived Irishman. "For instance, your friends in Cork are in bed and fast asleep by this time, while we are enjoying ourselves in the early evening." "That's always the way," exclaimed Pat, "Ireland never got justice yet."

COM. MERCHANTS,

 AND
 MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE.
 THOS. FENNER, H. BENNETT, D. W. BOWMAN,
 M. T. A. TOBIN, who was for a length of time connected with the old firm of Hotchkiss, Fenner & Bennett, has an interest in the present firm, and will devote his attention principally to the State of South Carolina. His address will be Clinton, Laurens District. Oct 3 1mo

TO THE CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA.
 The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted, save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

 It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandy, Holland Gin, Liqueurs, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time or expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.
 Twenty-five years' business transactions with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britain have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liqueurs and Liqueurs of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and vendors of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which, with ordinary circumspection, will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.
 I would, however, recommend, in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandy, &c., in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign Wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especially recommend to all connoisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would specially call the attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfillment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.
